The Pittsburgh Daily Commercial.

VOL. 1.—NO. 41. PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 23, 1863. PRICE THREE CENTS.

The Daily Commercial.

CHARLES COOK, State Senator, lies ill at Havana, Schuyler county, and is not expected to survive.

GEN. DIX was received at Portland, Me., on Tuesday by the city government and citizens. He pronounced the harbor defences there to be in a satisfactory condition.

GEN. SICKLES bade adieu to his old corps on Monday and returned to Washington, Gen. MEADE not considering him well enough to resume command.

LATE LETTERS from Europe mention that an edition of Mr. SUMNER'S speech on "Our Foreign Relations," was printing at Paris under the direction of Mr. BIGLOW, the indefatigable Consul of the United States at that capital.

SEVEN car loads of freight, consisting chiefly of general merchandise, were destroyed on the Central Railroad at Jordan, early on Tuesday morning. The fire was caused by sparks from the locomotive communicating with the vapor from petroleum, with which one of the cars was loaded.

MR. JAMES E. P. STEVENS, long and favorably known from his connection with the Tremont House, Boston, and the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, is very dangerously ill in the last named city.

A DISPATCH from Washington to Governor ANDREW, states the quota of Massachusetts under the new call for volunteers, at 15,120 men. Active and liberal measures are being initiated to induce volunteering all over the State.

A PROCLAMATION from Gov. TOD informs the public that Ohio's quota of volunteers, under the new call, is about five thousand, and that a draft for that number will be made on the 26th inst., If they are not sooner raised by volunteering.

THERE were thirteen bids in response to the proposals for furnishing the Government with mules. the offers ranging from $118 95 to $187. The contracts were awarded on Tuesday, at Washington. as follows: 500 at $118 95; 500 at $122; 500 at $124; and 600 at $137.

THE DETROIT Tribune says the prospect is flattering for a large trade between Liverpool and Detroit, Cleveland, and other lake cities. It learns from good authority that a firm in Liverpool have it in contemplation to place twelve or fourteen first-class vessels on this route next season.

PRESBYTERIANS.—The returns of this denomination show that there are, in the loyal States, 22 synods, embracing 106 presbyteries, 1,615 ministers, 162 licentiates, 191 candidates, 1,454 churches. Added on examination, 4,744; on certificate, 4,079; communicants, 185,894.

IN the Continental Purse two mile heat race, at the Suffolk Park Course, Philadelphia, on Tuesday, the jockey of the BEN BRUCE fell as he started, and hung by the bridle until his collar bone was broken and he was kicked senseless. The boy is doing well. The Capt. MOORE walked over the course, and the BEN BRUCE was distanced.

SUICIDE.—We learn that JOHN MORITZ, of Howe township, Perry county, committed suicide by hanging himself by the neck in his barn floor, on Wednesday morning last. He was about 62 years of age. He had been at the election the day before. No cause is assigned for his act; but it is probable that he was laboring under an aberration of mind.

THE Grand Lodge of the Masonic Order of Ohio has been in session at Columbus during the last two days. On Tuesday night they clected the following officers for the ensuing year: Grand Master, Thomas Sparrow; Deputy Grand Master, Howard Mathews; Senior Grand Warden, Octavus Walters; Junior Grand Warden, Thomas Laish; Grand Secretary, John D. Caldwell; Grand Treasurer, F. Phillips.

A YOUNG man named WILKINSON was arrested in Philadelphia, Tuesday, on the charge of murdering ELLEN JONES and JOHN BARRETT, at Lewes, Delaware Co. Mrs. JONES kept a small tavern, in which the bodies were found, horribly mutilated, the deed having evidently been committed with an axe, which was found close by. BARRETT was there all day, and in the evening was intoxicated. One of Mrs. JONES' children says that WILKINSON killed the parties.

JEFF. DAVIS, it is reported, feels anxious about his navy. There are indications that the number of vessels now being constructed in Europe for him is far more considerable than is generally supposed. It appears that quite a number of rebel naval officers are now leaving Richmond for London. In view of these things the question becomes of more pressing importance—will the British Government permit the rebel rams to sail from the Mersey?

AN amended circular has been sent out from the Provost Marshal-General's Office, by which it appears that to every recruit, who is a veteran volunteer, a bounty and a premium amounting to $402 will be paid; and to all other recruits, not veterans, $302. These are for the old organizations. The object is to encourage volunteering, as those who are drafted receive only $100 bounty. Men enlisted under this order will be permitted to select their regiments, which, however, must be one of the old regiments in the field.

A PANTHER IN ILLINOIS.—A farmer ploughing in the Southern part of Illinois was recently attacked by a large panther. The ferocious animal sprung first upon his horse, but soon leaving that, leaped upon the man and injured him severely. He was finally driven off to adjacent woods, and was hunted and killed on the following day. This was down near Cairo, not far from a large tract of woodland and swamp, in which carniverous wild animals and beasts of chase are still found.

A GERMAN citizen of Minnesota has become the father of ten children in less than three years! He and his better half, also a German, live near La Crescent. In August, 1861, gave birth to three boys, two of whom lived. June, 1862, three boys and one girl; two of the boys and the girl alive, and well. On the 5th of this month she presented to the family circle, three little strangers, two girls and a boy, all of whom a fortnight ago were alive and well. Government cannot afford to draft the head of that family.

HOOKER AT CHATTANOOGA.—Mr L. N. CROUNSE, the reliable correspondent of the Times, states, in a recent letter from Tennessee, that Gen. HOOKER brought a portion of his forces from the Potomac to Chattanooga, a distance of thirteen hundred miles, in five days; and adds, that when at Stevenson, while on his way, he found an opportunity to detach some troops to intercept and defeat a formidable rebel raid that was intended to cut ROSECRANS' communication by making a circuit in his rear. Both of these operations are JOE HOOKER "all over" while looking for a fight.

GOV. MORTON, of Indiana, is raising eleven regiments of volunteers—seven of infantry and four of cavalry—at eleven different camps. It is intended that they shall be full by the 10th of November.

THE report of the mutiny in BRAGG'S army seems to be fully confirmed. It was occasioned by the refusal of the Georgia militia to remain longer in active service. BRAGG refused to grant them permission to return home. They stacked arms and resolutely refused to be coerced. LONGSTREET'S men were ordered into line and fired several volleys into them. It is said that sixty were killed and two hundred wounded.

LIEUT. COL. BRODERICK, of the 1st New Jersey cavalry, who has just been released from the prisons in Richmond, reports some 900 officers and 10,000 enlisted Union men now held in "durance vile." He says they are in great destitution. Sickness prevails to a great extent, numbers die daily, and the mortality is increasing, owing to insuffiency of food and lack of clothing. The officers and men claim that rebel prisoners should be subjected to the same privations until the rebel authorities cease to treat our men as brutes.

WISE PREPARATION.—The Legislature of Vermont has just resolved that exigencies of the times demand a thorough organization of the enrolled militia of the State into companies, regiments and brigades, with provision for arming the same. The plan also requires an efficient drill of each company and its commissioned officers, and annual encampments for the instruction of the entire regiments and brigades. When a State so remote from the present seat of war as Vermont is, makes such wise provision for home defense, it surely becomes every border State to promptly put itself in a condition to repel invasion or suppress domestic insurrection.

THE PRESIDENT AT THE THEATRE.—The recently expressed wish of Mr. LINCOLN to witness a performance of MACBETH was gratified last week, when Miss CUSHMAN appeared in Washington, in the part of Lady MACBETH, for the benefit of the Sanitary Commission. The net proceeds amounted to about two thousand dollars. Whether the President intends to give another criticism upon SHAKSPEARE or not the journals at Washington do not say. His letter to Mr. HACKETT has been commented upon in England, and not to the discredit of his dramatic taste.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21, 1863.

After all the blowing of trumpets that Lee's army had retreated in haste across the Rapidan in order to reinforce that portion of their army now in the immediate front of Burnside, it turns out to-day, by telegraph from the army of Meade, that we did not have to follow them on a double-quick far without finding them. I do not believe that the enemy will go back without attempting to injure the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and perhaps endeavoring to plunder our border. They must be suffering very much for many necessary articles which a few days' observation north of the Potomac would enable them to gather up. A letter from St. John's Run, West Virginia, dated the 18th, says that two rebel deserters had arrived there, and they say that Moseby and three or four hundred of his followers were to have started for the north of the Shenandoah last Monday. We are in readiness for rebel raiders now. Let them come.

Although Lee has once more retraced his steps to the front of Washington, and Rosecrans come to grief, according to rumor, we never were gayer than now. Our places of business are thronged with customers, and our Halls of amusement overflowed with paying patrons. Besides our regular places of amusement, the Academy of Music opens the coming month, with the German opera. Festevali, too, opens here next week. She is now the artist who assumes the mantle of Celeste—in certain characters. She is understood to be somewhat prominent in form. We have also, nightly, more than our regular supply, for the season, of ballad-singing, puppet-dancing, and miscellaneous performances. One nuisanee which we would be grateful to have removed, is the "Concert" Saloons, so called. We are absolutely infested with them. They are the greatest sink-holes of iniquity any city was ever cursed with, yet, there appears to be no means of relief. We looked to the State Legislature last winter, but the maojrity of city members killed a project for their suppression, so they bloom as ever. We shall send some others to try this winter. In one of my letters a few days since, I referred to the amount of divorce business in our courts. To-day, Patrick Kirk was so fortunate as to be on trial in the District Court for breach of promise. I say fortunate, for it scarcely sounds as bad as it would to be tried for burglary, or to go in court on account of matrimony. Better get off before that, even if it cost something. Patirck thought so too, so he felt willing, it appears, to take the chance, after engaging eminent counsel, in the shape of Benjamin H. Brewster, Esq. It was in evidence that the parties were acquainted for about five years, during which time Patrick "kept company" with Mary and promised marriage. The day was fixed for the Sunday after Easter last, and Mary with her sister were dressed, and waiting for the bridegroom. He did not appear, and since then has made no explanation, hence the present suit. There was no defence; but Mr. Brewster, the counsel for Patrick, made an amusing speech, contending that no great harm had been done, as Mary had the benefit of Patrick's company for five years, and that was worth something! This was proven, according to his argument, as she now sued him because she had not more of it! Before the case went to the jury, the defendant offered $100, as damages, but this being refused the contest was as to the amount to be awarded by the jury. That august body failed to decide upon the case in time for me to tell you how much they differed from Mr. Brewster.

The Presbyterian Synod, (O. S.,) expects to meet to-morrow night at Rev. Dr. Henry's church, West Philadelphia. The whole number of members number about four hundred, clerical and lay. Members from the West will leave the cars at West Philadelphia, and thereby save time and distance.

A few of the subordinate Russian officers have arrived here on a visit—not officers. The curiosity seeker had a good chance to see them as they paraded Chestnut street—some of them, I am sorry to say, with "three sheets in the wind and the others fluttering." However, as it appears nothing can be done any more without a liberal allowance of wines, whisky, etc., perhaps it will do no good for me to write about it. It shows how the world moves, that's all.

Nevin's light battery, from your city, we observe, has gone down the Cumberland Valley. They appear to be considered A No. 1, according to what I can learn among our military men. It is certainly satisfactory to see such excellent arrangements as now exist, and the ready facility with which troops are moved to our State's defence. Everything goes along smoothly, and we reasonably expect that such will continue to be the case, now that we have, to a great extent, got rid of the formidable opposition of the Copperheads. May the day be far distant in which they are to return,

Rev. Dr. Clay, the old and esteemed pastor of Gloria Dei Church, (old Swedes,) Southwark, died at his late residence adjoining the church, yesterday. Dr. Clay was the oldest stationed recor in this city. He some months since preached a sermon celebrating his fiftieth year in the ministry. One feature of the last Episcopal Convention was the introduction, by Bishop Stevens, of a resolution congratulating Dr. Clay upon having attained a half centennial in the ministry. Amongst the last documents to which he penned his signature was the famous protest against Bishop Hopkins.

The salute of one hundred guns, which I telegraphed the Commercial were being fired at noon yesterday, was concluded without accident, and amid considerable enthusiasm among the outsiders.

The gunboat Monticello is being prepared for sea very rapidly. She made a trip down the bay to-day and worked satisfactorily. The Lodona, which has been undergoing repairs, is about completed, and expects to leave for blockading duty this week. At the present rate, I should like to see a nation on this earth that will be able to hold its own against us in another year. Why, it is absolutely astonishing. I took a walk along our wharves in the upper and lower part of the city a short time since, and I could scarcely believe what my own eyes saw. The work which is being performed on war vessels at this port is startling to all "peace men." Sum up the whole, in the various harbors along the coast, and one could hardly believe his own senses. There is now in the course of construction at the Kensington shipyard a mammoth floating battery of 3,500 tons burden. It will be somewhat longer than the Ironsides, with all the invulnerability and seaworthiness of that vessel. At the same yard is also being constructed the United States monitor Yazoo, which in many respects will differ from any monitor afloat.

BRICKS are worth ten dollars a thousand, delivered in Indianapolis.

CARTES DE VISITE of SPENCER KELLOGG BROWN, of Utica, who was murdered at Richmond, are announced as for sale for the benefit of his family.

A CORRESPONDENT of a New York paper, writing about Utah, remarks: "It is asserted by the Mormons that the most perfect harmony and good feeling prevail among the wives of the harem, but I have positive information which shows this to be false." The correspondent is very likely to be right. The only thing that would lead one to doubt it is that BRIGHAM YOUNG or any other Mormon can stand the fury of ten, fifteen or twenty wives each jealous of the other. There can be little paradisaical bliss in the "state of polygamy."

LIEUT.-COL. IRVINE, of the Tenth New York cavalry, who was captured at the head of his regiment while behaving most gallantly in the cavalry fight at Brandy Station, during HOOKER's march towards Maryland, has been exchanged for a Lieut.-Colonel who was chief of Gen. MORGAN's staff, and arrived in Washington. He states that Union prisoners are undergoing most horrid treatment. About twelve hundred are kept without shelter and without proper clothing, and are almost starved. One man was brought into hospital extremely ill and he stated that no food had been given him for seven nays. Another was brought in almost famished and laid upon the floor and a piece of bread put into his hands. He gnawed convulsively at the bread a few moments, but died before he could be placed upon a bed.

ARANGEMENTS FOR THE RECEPTION OF MR. H. W. BEECHER—Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER is expected to return home early in November, and the congregation of Plymouth Church are making preparations to receive him. It is understood that a steamboat has been chartered, in which MR. BEECHER's friends who bade him farewell in the harbor will go down to the Narrows to meet him on his return. The Plymouth Sunday School Association has arranged for a musical entertainment. It will hold its annual festival subsequent to the arrival of MR. BEECHER, and will distinguish the occasion with reception honors to the pastor. MR. BEECHER has been announced to speak at Exeter Hall to-morrow, JOHN BRIGHT in the chair. He may also speak in Birmingham, but his arrival in New York will scarcely be delayed beyond the 10th of next month.

MAJOR-GENERAL THOMAS.—The news is confirmed that Maj.-Gen. ROSECRANS has been relieved of the command of the Army of the Cumberland. He is succeeded by Maj.-Gen. GEORGE H. THOMAS, who has established a reputation as a soldier second to none in the country. Major-General GRANT takes command of the Department of the Cumberland, Ohio and Kentucky, but General THOMAS is commander in the field. This is a most excellent arrangement. GRANT and THOMAS are the real heroes of the war in the Southwest, and they do all that can be done with the armies under them. Gen. THOMAS was born in Southampton county, Virginia, July 31st 1816. He graduated at West Point in 1840, and has ever since been in active service in the army. In the war with Mexico he was very distinguished, and he has done some of the most brilliant service that has been recorded in the present war. But for him the battle of Chickamauga would have been a fatal defeat. We look for new glory for the army of the Cumberland under his command.

WHAT LEE MEANS.—The Washington journals appear all to be in a fog as to the recent movements of LEE, and what is their import. The Chronicle attempts to explain them by the fact that these movements were a cover necessary to other movements in Georgia, in front of ROSECRANS. It says: "While LEE was making demonstrations in Virginia last week, he was sending away veterans to BRAGG and receiving in exchange conscripts, militia men and the rawest kind of soldiers in the persons of old men and half grown boys. They will attempt to turn our flanks at Chattanooga if everything is favorable. Should the Tennessee river rise, they are making preparations to crush the Army of the Cumberland by force of overwhelming numbers. In the next battle BRAGG will command the right, LONGSTREET the left, and JOE JOHNSTON the centre—the whole to be under the eye of JEFF. DAVIS and other efficient rebel luminaries." The importance of holding Georgia against further advances of the Union army would justify such a movement, and render it not improbable.

CALIFORNIA PRODUCTS.—We learn from the Sacramento, Cal., Union that raisins are now raised in California from the Fihersagos grape. They are put up in the best Eastern style, are perfectly cured, fair and comely in appearance, and of the genuine flavor. They will favorably compare, says the Union, with any to be found in the Eastern market, and we may soon look for the day when California will produce all the raisins needed by her people. Ladies who have seen and tasted this article, pronounce it a fruit most to be desired, and unsurpassed for the uses of pies and puddings. Another increasing product of the Eldorado State is turpentine, a ship-load, 1,000 barrels, of which is now on its way to New York. One Californian has made about a thousand gallons in six weeks, and in twenty-six days distilled 1,500 gallons, and made 168 barrel of resin of 280 pounds to the barrel. His still is of about 800 gallons capacity, and with his present arrangements he can run 300 gallons crude turpentine per day, making daily about 50 gallons spirits of turpentine and 2,000 pounds of resin.

INDICATIONS OF A SEVERE WINTER.—The movements of fishes and migratory birds thus early in the season, and the provident care of amphibious animals, seem to indicate a winter of uncommon severity. There is no doubt, we think, that the instinct with which these creatures have been gifted by their Creator, enables them to provide suitably for a season of more than usual intensity. The ancients went farther, and believed that by the flight of birds, etc., political and social events might be foretold. "Augurs and understood relations have been by choughs and maggot-pies begot." It is found in the northwestern States that the brook-trout are leaving the shallow streams and breaking to the deep pools, and that the musk-rats are fortifying the habitations in which they hybernate, against the intense cold weather, by another thick layer of mud. In the East it is discovered that the wild fowl are streaming Southward unusually early in the season. Wild ducks have already appeared in large number in the waters of the Chesapeake. These are regarded as almost infallible indication of a very severe winter; and though the like has sometimes been reported of one species, and no hard winter followed, it has hardly ever been known that so many concurrent signs of long and bitter cold weather failed.

Respect for the Press.

The newspaper is a peculiar institution of our country. Many of our citizens would almost as soon go without their breakfast as without their morning paper. We read newspapers in cars, in workshops, on boats, in hotels, in offices, in camp, at home, everywhere; in fact the newspaper furnishes the only mental food for a large class of citizens, and as a means of moral culture, is only surpassed by the circulation of the Scriptures and the efforts of the Ministry. Every farmer takes, or should take, his country paper, and it is carefully read by every member of his household, and as its contents are good or bad, so are the effects which it will produce, and upon the editor rests the responsibility, whether the teachings of his journal are for good or evil, and the fair fame and credit of the press make it a duty of every editor to caution his brethren and the public at large, by publicly reproving any journalist who negligently permits to appear in the columns of the journal under his care, that which offends morality and decency.

Thus it is that we are impelled by a sense of duty, and in the name of the respectable press of the country, to call upon Gen. WILL A. STOKES, a soldier, and a gentleman and a scholar, the editor and proprietor of the Westmoreland Republican, to apologise to offended public decency for the appearance in that journal of a local item by JAMES H. CLARK, local editor.

That General STOKES saw that item before its insertion we do not believe, and hence his own self-respect will urge its disavowal. That any honest man should be so lost to all sense of shame as to approve that tirade of obscenity we can scarcely credit, for that would reduce him to the level of a beast, nay, lower—to the level of the bigoted and depraved pettifogger who penned it. Sometimes, it is true, in partisan warfare sharp articles are written and strong expressions used, for which the heat of contest is considered a sufficient warrant for what otherwise would be held objectionable; but the item of which we complain was published after the election, when it could serve no party purpose, nor have any other effect whatever than to shock the decency or offend the morality of the community.

The flowers of oratory, the airy pencil of wit, and the keen pen of satire have long been recognized as the proper weapons of political strife; but this scurrilous scribbler cannot comprehend their use, his depraved mind only acknowledges the broad daub of vile, personal vituperation, and he scatters his filth with mendacious malignity only equalled by the shocking profanity of his diction, and only surpassed by the vile beasteality of his inuendoes. But we did not intend to more than allude to this cowardly braggart. We take no pleasure in speaking with severity, our contempt is not unmixed with pity, and nobody expects or desires any apology from him—indeed nothing could excuse him unless it were gross intoxication or mental imbecility; but to Gen. STOKES we confidently look for a disavowal of that disgraceful jumble of slang and falsehood, of oaths and obscenity, and an apology for his negligence which permitted its publication. This we feel is due to the respectable press of the country, and to the self respect of his subscribers and himself.

Poland.

That the people of the United States—the refuge of the oppressed of all nations—should deeply sympathise with the effort of a gallant people to loosen the giant grasp of Russia is perhaps natural. That our liberty-loving Anglo-Saxons should feel for the troubles of the lands of PULASKI and KOSCIUSKO—the land whose sorrows have been sung in the gentle numbers of CAMPBELL, and the stately gallantry of whose cavaliers is depicted in the florid prose of Thadeus of Warsaw—is to be expected, for in our large hearted philanthrophy we would have all men enjoying the blessings of civil and religious liberty, and the extent to which this feeling is carried among us is shown by the fact that we mourn over the wrongs of the Irish Celts, though we are descendants of the dominant race, and the traditions of our fathers are not calculated to excite sympathy for the descendants of the CREIGHTS and RAPPAREES. But, however praise-worthy this spirit may be in the abstract, the great mass of the people suffer their feelings to lead them astray from the path which common sense, in a moment of calm reflection, would point out as the best method of relieving the oppressed nationalities and peoples of Europe, and of securing forever the free institutions which we enjoy. That path is, justice to all. Political freedom and equality must be inscribed upon the banner of that people who hope to enjoy the blessings of liberty. Magyars made a gallant struggle against the power of Austria; but the Magyars failed because they fought for their own freedom only, and if successful, what benefits would have accrued to the wretched serfs of Croat or Slavonic race, who have groaned under Magyar oppression for ages? None! The foundation of the Magyar revolt was too narrow for the spirit of the age.

So it is with unhappy Poland. The ancient possessors of the soil have for long ages been ground to the earth by the oppressions of the priests and nobles, and until some scheme is devised which reaches their case, the struggles of the Leche nobles for the freedom of their race will be fruitless. They feel now what their Sarmatian serfs have felt for centuries—the misery of the sway of a master race, different in language, customs and religion, and we fear it is the effort of the Czar to loosen the bonds of their serfs that mainly caused the present insurrection.

In our own country we are now paying with blood and tears for the error which our fathers made, by not insisting on a literal understanding of the clause in the Declaration of Independence, affirming the freedom and equality of all men. The God of Justice has heard the groans and cries of the oppressed African, and hath so ordered events that we cannot maintain our own freedom unless we share its blessings with him. We, as a people as well as individually, must "do unto others as we would be done by;" we must "be virtuous if we would be happy." "He who seeks equity must do equity;" and neither the hearty good will of our people, nor the active aid of the European party of progress can cause the Polish revolution to succeed; the gallant devotion of the patriots may command our respect, their death or exile may excite our sympathy; but their cause will fail, because it is not founded on the rock of equality to all men; because it does not grant to all the rights which God intended all should enjoy.

HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS wrote a pamphlet of an hundred pages or so to prove that Judge WOODWARD was a perjured scoundrel, and probably half as many to prove that Gov. CURTIN was a thief and an imbecile. Both were subsequently nominated for Governor, and WILLIAMS like the ass between the two bundles of hay, didn't know which way to nibble, and, nobody but himself seemed to care on which side he should forage. As Governor CURTIN ran more than double the majority a certain M. C. received in the Allegheny district about a year ago, we suggest that THOMAS might come down a cat or two in his bill of indictment against CURTIN, without materially damaging his reputation for common sense. If the vote of Allegheny don't teach him a little wisdom, there is still some consolation in the reflection that the State contributes generously toward the decent support of the insane in Western Pennsylvania—Franklin Repository.

An Appeal for the Appeal.

That the quondam Memphis Appeal is a rebel paper will scarcely be denied. That it emigrates from the presence of the Union army is a well known fact, and that by its treason it has incurred the penalty of confiscation, will be willingly admitted by all as the just and natural punishment of its crime; but that its coadjutor in treason, the Pittsburgh Post, a sheet published in the midst and existing upon the support of the people of a district pre-eminent for loyalty in a loyal State, should be permitted by the authorities to poison the minds and hearts of its readers day after day, by its vile attacks upon the Government—especially the effort to promote volunteering and diminish the severity of the coming draft—is in our opinion a degree of clemency which impinges upon the sacred impartiality of justice. It is totally misplaced and undeserved; and such we have reason to believe is the opinion of the large majority of the loyal citizens of this community.

That the Appeal is conducted with ability and courtesy, and that the Post is conducted with a spiteful malignity whose satire is ill nature, and whose wit is personal abuse, can make no difference in their guilt. That the Appeal is published and mainly circulated within the rebel lines proves nothing more than that the Post is allowed and makes use of the permission to scatter broadcast the seeds of discontent and disaffection among a population which the avowedly rebel paper could not reach, and though both wage unceasing war upon the Government, the Post has facilities which makes it the more serviceable journal in the cause of treason. We call the attention of the proper officers to this matter. We believe the maxim, "Equality is equity," and if our just complaint is disregarded, we trust the proprietors of the Appeal may be permitted to send an agent, who, with pitiful, abject whines about political proscription—which in truth is simply self-defense in such cases—may also succeed in imposing upon our citizens and levying upon the charitable liberality of our business men contributions to support treason.

State Treasurer.

Some of our friends have called in to remind us that Western Pennsylvania will present a candidate for the State Treasury in the person of BENJAMIN RUSH BRADFORD, of Beaver county. We were not before aware that his name would be up before the Legislature for that office. Mr. BRADFORD is a gentleman largely and favorably known throughout the State, and we have no doubt would make a most competent and faithful financial officer. Should there be a disposition to try a new man, no more deserving can anywhere be found. We cheerfully bring testimony to the high-toned character and financial ability of Mr. BRADFORD, and it would give us great pleasure to hear of his election.

CAPT. LATSHAW, the Post Quartermaster at Lexington, Ky., has been tried by Court-martial, and fined $60,000 and sentenced to three years' imprisonment for defrauding the Government. Latshaw is a Canadian by birth, and enlisted in the Seventh Illinois cavalry, from Fulton county, in that State. He acted as Battalion Quartermaster in the Eleventh until that office was abolished, when he received the appointment of Post Quartermaster at Lexington. Attention was called to his peculations by the heavy amount of his deposits in banks in this city. Some say they reached as high as $60,000. Whatever the amount may have been, the Government has it safely in its possession.

THE Pittsburgh Gazette washed its face and donned a new suit on election day—just in time to join in the hurrah for Curtin. It tried its hand some months ago at defiling its own nest, and has had the luxury of lying in it until it must have loathed itself. It is now an older and we doubt not a wiser newspaper, and we hazard little in saying that it will be some time before it furnishes copperheads with another such an assortment of filth with which to bespatter Union candidates. It has this consolation, however, nobody believed it, and there was "nobody hurt."—Franklin Repository.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Subscribers in Manchester can be supplied with the DAILY COMMERCIAL by leaving their names with John P. Hughes, tobacconist, Beaver street.

South Pittsburgh, Birmingham, East Birmingham and Brownstown.

Citizens of the above places can have the Daily and Evening Commercial left at their residences by leaving their names at the undermentioned places:

South Pittsburgh—Nankter's store.

Birmingham—Mrs. Ramsey's News Depot, Carson street.

East Birmingham and Brownstown—At Leithead's News Depot, Carson street, East Birmingham. GEO. H. LEITHEAD, Carrier.

Lieut. James J. Will, formerly of the 133d Regiment, P. V., will hear of something to his advantage, by calling at No. 65, Fifth street.

A meeting of the members of the Third Presbyterian Church is called for Friday evening, 22d inst., at Mozart Hall, Seventh street. Every member is earnestly invited to be present.

United States Military Hospital.—We understand that the Sisters of Mercy have been invited to take charge of the United States Military Hospital of this city, and have entered upon the discharge of their trust.

Court Martial.—The Court Martial, Col. Morris presiding, is now engaged in the trial of George H. White for desertion. The accused enlisted as a substitute for Samuel J. Fargo, at Waterford, Erie county, in the Nineteenth district, and subsequently deserted.

LEFT Mercer County on Monday, the 19th inst., a young man calling himself T. J. Nickum. Had, when last seen at New Castle, a hand trunk, with card requesting the conductor to see the "Fat Boy" safely delivered at Pittsburgh, Pa. Any information concerning the young man will be thankfully received by his parents at Mercer, Pa.

Pittsburghers in Philadelphia.—The following Pittsburghers were registered at the Philadelphia hotels on Tuesday:—J. M. Knap, W. R. Murphy, Mrs. Phillips, Miss Phillips, Mrs. R. Biddle, R. H. Hartley, R. S. Officer and family, John McCargo, George D. Cook, J. N. Miller, E. Groatzinger, Mrs. Hood, Mrs. Weissr, James Finch.

A Monster Gun.—The patterns have been made and preparations commenced at the Fort Pitt foundry, for the casting of a gun which will have a bore of twenty inches. Its length will be twenty feet, and its greatest diameter at the breech, five feet four inches. It will weigh about 114,000 pounds.

Child Burned to Death.—On Monday evening last, a little girl aged three years, daughter of Mr. Nathaniel Weigle, residing in the borough of York, was burned to death. She had been put to bed a short time previous, and a lighted lamp left in the short room, the flames from which communicated with the bed clothing, when the child was fatally burned.

Death of Mrs. Patterson.—We regret to be called upon to announce the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Tanner Patterson, wife of ex-Sheriff Rody Patterson, which took place on Wednesday evening from apoplexy. Mrs. Patterson was in her usual good health, and died in a few minutes after the attack. She was the sister of Mr. James P. Tanner, and was a most exemplary woman, and her sudden demise will be regretted by a large circle of acquaintances.

Remarkable Feat.—Mr. John Metler, formerly residing near Easton, and now in his sixty-ninth year, did some tall walking lately. He has been a resident of the State of Ohio for the last two years, but getting tired of Buckeye life, concluded to return to his old home. He preferred walking to railroading and steamboating, and accordingly set out on his long journey on September 21, arriving at Easton on Saturday, Oct. 16, thus making the trip in fifteen days. The distance traveled when he reached home was 465 miles in sixteen days! The old gentleman boasts that he can cut two cords of wood in one day without any difficulty.

Buy a Country Home.—We would direct the attention of those of our citizens who contemplate purchasing a site for a country home to the sale of Mr. McGunnigle's farm, in Chartiers valley, which will take place on Friday. The property is most eligibly situated, near McKee's Rocks, and is accessible by good roads, or it may be reached by the Manchester railway, crossing the river in a skiff below the House of Refuge. The farm has been divided into lots of various sizes, from three to seven acres, and as the situation has everything to recommend it, no more desirable seats for country homes can be found. A view of the cities can be had from the property, and, altogether, it possesses attractions of more than an ordinary character. The terms of payment are easy, for which see advertisement.

Farewell Missionary Meeting.

On Tuesday evening a farewell missionary meeting was held in the Second United Presbyterian church, Allegheny, on the occasion of the departure of a number of ladies and gentlemen as missionaries and teachers to the freedmen of the South. Rev. G. C. Vincent presided. The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. John T. Pressly, after which addresses were delivered by Dr. Sproul, Dr. John Douglass, Dr. Gracey, and Col. Clark, interspersed with the singing of Psalms. A collection was taken up, and sixty dollars realized. The missionaries and teachers have been divided into two corps, and are as follows: First corps—Rev. Thomas Calahan, Superintendent; John Leckey, Misses Henrietta Lee, A. M. Smith, Aggie E. Hammond, Agnes Frazier, and Lizzie M. Findley. Second corps—Rev. S. F. Vanatta, Superintendent; Joseph K. M'Connell, Mrs. Mary E. M'Connell, Daniel H. M'Fate, Hulda J. Ricketts, Isabella Brown, Jennie Huddleson, and Miss Logan. They were escorted to the midnight train by a host of friends, who bade the missionaries God-speed in their labor of love.

Arrest of an Alleged Murderer.

THE Mayor's police, on Wednesday night, arrested a German named Joseph Snyder, an employee at the lower depot of the Central Railroad, and a resident of the Fifth Ward, charged with the murder of his wife. It appears that Snyder, who is a Roman Catholic, and his wife, who was a Protestant, have lived anything but a quiet, harmonious life. Their difficulties grew out of a difference of religious opinion, and he was in the habit of beating and abusing her. He had at various times prevented her getting from the groceries the necessaries of life. On last Wedneaday night Mrs. Snyder, together with a neighbor, put clothes to soak for the wash, and was last seen about nine o'clock. The disappearance of Mrs. Snyder caused quite a sensation in the neighborhood, and some of the people living in the vicinity made information of their suspicions of foul play to Mayor Sawyer. Snyder, ever since the disappearance of his wife, has been in the habit of sneaking into his house at all hours, and his whole movements were very suspicious. On being arrested Snyder accounted for his wife's absence by stating that he took her to Cleveland, and left her at the house of P. Zimmerman, who keeps a tavern called the "Golden Eagle," she refusing to return with him. Mayor Sawyer immediately on hearing this statement telegraphed to Cleveland to ascertain the truth of Snyder's story. In the meantime, the accused has been committed to prison for a further hearing.

FROM THE SOUTH.—Lieut. Col. IRVINE, of the 10th New York cavalry, who was captured last June, has been exchanged for Lieut. Col. ALLSTON, JOHN MORGAN's chief of staff, and arrived in that city on Monday. Besides favoring us with Southern papers, he informs us that the sufferings of the Union prisoners are intense beyond description. Both officers and men are kept half starved, besides being without shelter or clothing. It is an awful thing that our brave men should be subjected to such inhumon treatment.

PITTSBURGH GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL,
Friday, October 23.

Business yesterday was moderately active. The demand for the leading articles was steady. The weather was delightful for out-door transactions. Our rivers are again on the rise, with sufficient water for most of our new boats to leave for the lower ports; we noticed a great deal of activity on the wharf—merchandise, especially Pittsburgh manufactured articles. The new steamer Olive is expected to leave to-day. Capt. Hazlett's new and pretty steamer "Carrie" will leave positively on Saturday; a number of others will be ready in a short time. A rise of three feet is reported at Brownsville, and the same amount is reported to be coming from the Youghiogheny, this of itself will open the fall business.

FLOUR—The market was very firm with a steady trade demand. The present rise in our rivers will soon increase the receipts, as several hundred barrels that had been detained between this port and Cincinnati, arrived here yesterday. It will take pretty heavy receipts to effect this market, as the stocks have been reduced down to a pretty low figure. There was a good local business done from store, at Extra—$5 60@$5 75.

Extra Family.—$6 50@$6 75.

GRAIN—The market at present is in a very unsettled state. The demand was fair. Sales only limited.

Barley—Is declining, the leading article at this time being sold at about 20c ℔ bus above.

Wheat—With sales of Spring at $1 30 and Fall $1 50 ℔ bus, an advance of 10c on the latter. Sales of Red at $1 18@1 20; prime $1 28@1 30.

Corn—Market steady, all good parcels offered. Sells at $1 04@1 06.

Oats—Market steady at 75c ℔ bus.

Rye—Scarce, it would command $1 10@1 12 readily. The decline in the Western market has had no effect here.

Salt—Sales of 96 bbls at $2 50@2 60 ℔ bbl.

HAY—We could perceive no change as regards prices or demand. The receipts keep pace with the demand. We note sales of 18 loads at $30@$34 50 ℔ tun. Baled sold from store at firmer prices.

BUTTER—Holders were firm, with sales 1,600 lbs at 22@24c.

EGGS.—Market very steady. Sales 4 bbls at 15@15½c ℔ dozen.

WHISKY—Holders firm at full rates. Sales 40 bbls at 58@60c.

PITTSBURGH OIL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY COMMERCIAL
Friday, Oct. 23.

We have nothing new to notice in regard to this article; buyers manifest no disposition to speculate at the present asking prices, whilst sellers manifest but little disposition to give way.

The exports to New York were—Refined, 710; Tar, 14. To Philadelphia—Refined, 50; Crude, 191; Benzole, 6. To Baltimore—Crude, 52. Total, 1,023.

Refined dull. The decline in New York is beginning to be felt. When Refined is selling in that market at 48@49c, it is not difficult to tell what the article is worth here. We omit prices as being too uncertain.

Wool Trade in Michigan.

Buyers have been the last week more than ordinarily anxious to accommodate the farmers with cash for their wool on the line of the Michigan Central, and considerable wool has changed hands; but most of the clips are now in the hands of the wool-growers, who prefer to hold their wool for better prices.

New York Cattle Market.

SECOND DAY.

The receipts at all the market places in the city for the last six or seven weeks have been greater than at any previous period. Let us look at the number each week since Sept 1:

September 1	5,820	September 29	7,051
September 8	5,194	October 6	6,581
September 15	7,077	October 13	5,547
September 22	5,775	October 20	7,200

TRANSPORTATION.

It may sound strange to those who suppose our railroads have almost unlimited capacity, to hear us say that they are insufficient to carry all the stock offered as fast as required. The Erie road reports 130 cars of bullocks, and they will average eighteen to the car, making 2,340. The New York Central is constantly crowded, and the Hudson River and Harlem are heavily taxed Saturday and Sunday to get cattle down time for market. We are glad to state that the Harlem Road has a force of men to work upon the new location of the cattle market above Yorkville, intending to get some feeding lots ready, if possible, before winter, in hopes that drovers will bring cattle down on Saturday, so as to obviate crowding trains on Sunday night. Drovers say that they would gladly ship on Saturday if they could feed as well and cheaply here as at Albany, but that there is now no decent feeding lots in the city. They will be glad to hear of the arrangements making for their accommodation. It will also enable the up-country cattle to come down on Saturday and rest and feed on Sunday, so that they can come into market in fine condition on Monday morning. The plan is an excellent one.

THE CLOSE OF THE MARKET.

Tuesday Oct. 20.—The morning opens with a cheering October sun, but it has no power to revivify the market. That was finished last night. To-day the mourners gather around the remains to "give away" the remnants of droves left unsold, and count up the losses. It will be well to take into account the fact that we have had over 6,000 head a week for eight weeks, and that such a supply is beyond the capacity of this market. With such a supply it is wonderful how prices of first-class cattle have held up at 10c ℔ ℔ and over. It is wonderful, with the largest number of cattle in market this week that was ever in the city in one week, that the market closes with so few unsold, and that those that have been sold to-day have been at about as good prices as prevailed yesterday.

THE SHEEP MARKET.

Receipts this week, 15,923.

The market opened on Monday morning, in Sixth street, most distressingly for owners. It was entirely overstocked, and prices declined, on an average, fifty cents a head upon Sheep and Lambs, notwithstanding the continued improvement in the price of pelts, which are now considered worth $2 each. Old Sheep sell generally at prices equivalent to 5@5½c ℔ ℔ live weight, and very few at the highest rate. Lambs sell at not over 7c ℔ ℔. We noted some at $4.50 that would average 70 ℔ each, and some that we rated at 60 ℔ at $4,12. The best lot of Sheep in market were from Jefferson county, by C. S. Green. Some 40 of them, estimated by owner at 116 ℔ each, we saw priced at $7. The buyer was willing to give 6c, but did not estimate the weight over 110 ℔. This lot was extra quality as well as price. The market at Browning's was not crowded, but O'Brien was overrunning full of the purchases of Capt. Roger McGrow, who must lose a pile of money this week, in his attempt to control the market.

The surplus of lambs continues, and those of poor quality are very much depressed, and we wonder, for the meat in the wholesale market is selling less than the lambs per pound, live weight. From the slaughter-houses, mutton sells to customers, including first-class hotels, at 7@8c ℔ ℔., and lambs at 8@9½c ℔ ℔. When not all taken by customers, it has to be sent to the wholesale market, and sold at whatever it will bring. In such weather as the past few days, an over supply causes prices to run down almost to nothing. The great decline this week is partly owing to the warm weather, but mainly to the operations of Capt. McGrow in crowding more stock on the market than it would bear. It is understood that his agents bid up every car load that passes Buffalo and Albany, and the liberal prices paid lately has induced Western men to send forward very large supplies. The number received here is enough to break down any market. The trade, however, on Tuesday, is rather better than Monday.

THE HOG MARKET.

Receipts this week, 31,939. Quotations: $,75@$5,25 ℔ cwt., live weight, for corn fed hogs, and $5@$5,25 for distillery fed, are the quotations given by Henry D. Grant, Superintendent of the market. The market opened Monday morning pretty hard for drovers, the weather being warm and rainy, and the supply too great for the demand, and it is still more so to-day, 82 car loads having arrived this morning. The weather is cooler, clear and dry, so that drovers are not so despondent as yesterday.

Geo. W. Dorman gives the following as the price of Hogs this week:

	Live weight.	Dead weight.
First quality, corn fed large size	5¾@5¼	6⅞@7 c
Second quality, corn fed	4½@5¼	6¼@6⅞
First quality, small sizes, fat and prime, for market Butchers	4¾@5¼	6½@6¾c
Large size, still fed, fat	5@5¼	6¾@6⅞c
Second quality, still fed	5@5¼	6¼@6½c
Grass or Western mast fed	4 @4½	6 @6½c

Baltimore Market.—Oct. 21st.

Coffee.—Transactions in this article continue very limited. Rio is nominal at 32@34½c per ℔.

Flour and Meal.—On 'Change sales reported included 500 bbls Howard street Extra at $7 25, and 400 bbls Superfine and cut Extra do at $6 25@6 37½ ℔ bbl. Good brands of Western Flour were in some request, but held above the views of buyers. We now quote Ohio Superfine at $6 12½, Howard street do at $6 25@6 37½; Ohio Extra at $7 12½, Howard street do at $7 25@7 37½, and shipping brands City Mills do at $8 25@8 50 ℔ bbl. Rye Flour is very scarce and nominal at $6 50, and Corn Meal in moderate supply and firm at $5 75 ℔ bbl.

Grain.—Some 14,000 bus of Grain were received on the Corn Exchange this morning, viz: 8,000 bus Wheat, 4,000 do Corn, 1,500 do Oats, and 250 do Rye. Wheat fell off 3 cents ℔ bus on all grades, and closed dull. Sales of 3,000 bus prime and choice Kentucky white at $1 92@1 95, 2,000 bus fair to very good Southern do at $1 80@1 90, 4,000 bus damaged to ordinary do at $1 50@1 70, 1,500 bus fair to very good Southern red at $1 55@1 60, and 4,000 bus very inferior to medium do at $1 40@1 48 ℔ bus. No choice Maryland Wheat at market. Corn was heavy and closed at 2c lower. Sales of 2,000 bus common to prime white at $1 03@1 05, and 2,000 bus yellow do at $1 05@1 07 ℔ bus. Oats were neglected; sales of 2,500 bus Maryland at 62@66c measure for inferior to prime parcels. Rye was firm; sales of 350 bus Maryland at $1 30 ℔ bus.

Molasses and Sugars—No sales worthy of notice were reported in these articles, but prices ruled unchanged and firm.

Provisions.—We have to note sales of 25 hhds Bacon Shoulders and Sides, in jobbing lots, at 6¼@7c, and 50 trcs hard salted shipping Hams at 10½@10¾c ℔ ℔. Prices for all descriptions closed firm at quotations, viz: New Mess Pork at $15 75@16 00, and old do at $14 ℔ bbl. Bacon—Shoulders at 6½@6¾c, do Sides at 7c, plain Hams at 10@10½, and sugar cured and fancy do at 12½@14c ℔ ℔. Lard—Western in bbls and trcs at 11½c, City at 11 c, and refined at 14c ℔ ℔.

Whisky.—The market remains dull and inactive. Sales confined to 100 bbls Ohio at 62c ℔ gallon.

Chicago Market.

The receipts for the twenty-four hours ending 7 o'clock this a. m., were 363,333 bushels grain and grain in flour. The shipments for the same time were 162,115 bushels grain and grain in flour.

The unfavorable eastern advices and a decline in gold, together with the scarcity of currency, has materially checked the speculative demand for produce, and the market is dull and drooping. Flour is entirely neglected, and to effect sales holders would be compelled to make further concessions.

Wheat opened dull and heavy. No. 1 Spring sold at $1 07 and No. 2 at $1 04, but soon declined to $1 03@1 03½, closing quiet, with buyers only offering inside quotations.

Corn was in fair request and moderately active at 78@78½c for No. 1, and 77@77½c for No. 2 in store.

Oats dull and drooping at 55@56½c for No. 1, closing dull, with buyers offering 55c and sellers asking 55½@56c. Rye more active at 87½@88c for No. 1 in store. Barley unchanged, with a fair demand. Seeds of all kinds drooping. Lard weak with nothing doing. Mess pork quiet. Beans dull. Salt steady. Sugars and Coffee firm. Highwines dull. Freights firm and vessels scarce.

Memphis Cotton Market.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 17.—Business was dull to-day, notwithstanding the fact that the weather was the most propitious of the week.

In the cotton market we could not notice any revival. Sales were slow and few and far between. The receipts were light. The scarcity of currency still operates against dealers, one or two of whom were obliged yesterday, owing to the pressing demands of their customers, to sell at rates a little lower than those quoted yesterday. We quote:

Middling Fair	75c
Good Middling	70@72c
Middling	65c
Ordinary	50@55c
Low Ordinary	40c

There is no improvement to note in groceries. Prices are still looking up in the staples and stocks sinking. There was a slight decline in the amount of business as compared with that of the previous day. We trust that a few more days at farthest will see a different state of things inaugurated and a much more prosperous condition of trade existing.

New Orleans Market.—Oct. 8.

Cotton.—There were no offerings at auction to-day and very little on the market at private sale. Still, we noticed two or three small negotiations pending which were not consummated. The market is extremely flat and, looks feebler, but without anything transpiring to fix a decline.

Sugar—There is an active demand to-day, on speculation and for export to the North, and the sales embraced 700 hhds, in several lots at firm prices; fair to fully fair and prime 11½@11¼ and 11⅜@11¾c, low fair 10½, and inferior 9½c ℔ ℔.

Molasses—The active inquiry previously noticed has prevailed to day, but the supply in first hands being light, the sales are confined to about 200 bbls. in several lots, at 33c for ordinary, 34c for good, and 37c for good reboiled.

ST. LOUIS HEMP MARKET.—The market has been active, and prices have ruled high for prime to choice dressed and undressed, and the lower grades have been steady during the whole week, in some cases strictly choice dressed was sold as high as $225. Covered Tow has also ruled high, and closed firm with upward tendency. The market closed on Saturday firm and active. Sales during the week consist of about 1,500 bales, and prices ranging as follows: For common undressed $75@85; do good do. at $80@90; do prime do, at $95@100; do choice do. at $105@115; do prime dressed at $200@230; choice do, $210@$220; do strictly do do, at $225; do hackled Tow at $75@85.—Republican.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, October 22, 1863.

The Battle of Chickamauga.

The Washington Chronicle of this morning learns that the blame of the failure of the battle of Chickamauga, falls entirely on ROSECRANS and not on MCCOOK or CRITTENDEN. This statement is made semi-officially.

No Indications of a Battle.

Officers from the front doubt if any battle is probable now. LEE retreats as fast as we advance, and is ere this, in force across the Rappahannock.

No Probability of a General Engagement.

BUFORD's cavalry have crossed the Rappahannock and found that most of Lee's troops are concentrating around Culpepper. There is now no probabilitp of a general engagement; Most of our army are on this side of the river. It is not known, of course, how far LEE intends to retreat, but indications show how that he will not stop this side of the Rapidan.

Visit of Gen. Meade to Washington.

Gen. MEADE came to Washington this afternoon and after having an interview with the President and the military authorities, returned to headquarters this evening.

The Orange and Alexandria Railroad, on close examination, seems to be badly injured, the rebels in their retreat having taken up the rails and heated them so as to render them totally useless. The road bed is also torn up for miles, while every bridge is burned and culvert blown up.

The Washington Chronicle, of to-day, charges that ROSECRANS was entirely responsible for our defeat at Chickamauga, and in a measure relieves MCCOOK and CRITTENDEN, from the charges made against them of cowardice, is one the surprising charges made against ROSECRANS, as well as disobedience of orders as far back as June last. The statement that M'COOK was asleep in Chattanooga during the battle is officially contradicted.

Gen. HEINTZLEMAN is about to return to duty as commander of the Department of Washington.

Sixty thousand barrels of flour were contracted for by the Government to-day at $7 69. A

FROM CINCINNATI.

Special Despatch to the Commercial.

CINCINNATI, October 22.

Brownlow and Maynard.

Dispatches from Knoxville say that HORACE MAYNARD and Parson BROWNLOW were serenaded on Saturday evening, and in response made quite lengthy speeches, both endorsing the President and the measures of the Administration in the strongest terms. It was BROWNLOW'S first speech since his return, and it was more than characteristic of the man. MAYNARD announced that the slavery question must and will be discussed in Tennessee.

Occupation of Bristol.

General SHACKELFORD, with our advance, occupies Bristol. On his way up he captured three locomotives and a number of cars beyond Watauga Run. He has destroyed the Railroad beyond Bristol.

Military matters remain unchanged. Cannonading was heard below Loudon on the 20th, for some hours. A rebel cavalry raid was made on Wolford, near there, and LAW'S Mountain Howitzer Battery captured. No loss in killed, but twelve wounded. The Railroad is clear to Bristol.

Successful Expedition.

Col. G. W. GALLUP, commanding the Eastern District of Kentucky, sent out an expedition consisting of parts of six companies of the 14th and 39th Kentucky, one hundred and sixty men, under Lieut. Col. BROWN, of the 14th Kentucky, and Major FERGUSON, of the 39th Kentucky. The expedition has just returned. They marched over three hundred miles in eight days. At Saltiersville they repulsed an attack of Prentices command, more than double their numbers. They captured sixty horses, fifty prisoners, and about fifty stand of arms, without the loss of a man. The district is being pretty well cleared of rebels. GRANT, ROSECRANS, STANTON, VAN CLEVE and a number of other Generals are at Nashville.

Real Cause of Rosecrans' Removal.

The stories that ROSECRANS is removed for conduct in the battle of Chickamauga, or for physical disability, are bosh. There was a clashing of independent commands, and a necessity for their combination, and it could not be arranged without giving supreme command to one outranking HOOKER, BURNSIDE, etc. ROSECRANS would not care to serve under GRANT. His removal is no reflection upon his military abilities or his conduct of the campaign.

Difficulty Between Rebel Generals.

The Gazettee has dispatches from below which report that PRICE is falling back from Arkadelphia. KIRBY SMITH attempted to put HOLMES over PRICE, but the officers and soldiers mutinied and five hundred deserted. PRICE challenged HOLMES for a duel, but the difficulty has since been made up.

Provisional Government in Mississippi.

A provisional government is shortly to be established in Mississippi, which is now pretty much cleared of armed rebels.

General Lytles Funeral.

General LYTLE's funeral takes place this afternoon.

Rosecrans' Reception.

General ROSECRANS is to have a public reception. The arrangements for it are nearly completed. C

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Special Despatch to the Daily Commercial.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.

Order from the President to Gen. Meade.

The President sent Gen. MEADE a message last Saturday, telling him that he must find and fight the enemy at once, and if he won a victory he should have all the glory, but if he was defeated, he would assume the responsibility. The result is, MEADE is chasing the rebels back rapidly, none being discovered on this side of the Rappahannock yesterday.

The Removal of Rosecrans.

The removal of Rosecrans is the subject of much contradictory comment. Among other charges against him are, un-officer like conduct on the battle field; of a panic-stricken flight from the field to Chattanooga while the battle was at its crisis, and of his unsoldierly and mischievous conduct in publicly reporting, on reaching Chattanooga, to both officers and men, that the day was lost. Superadded to this, it is alleged, is governmental resentment at his disobedience of positive orders not to risk a general engagement by advancing beyond Chattanooga, before he was reinforced.

Rosecrans and Halleck.

The relations between ROSECRANS and HALLECK have been bad since the sharp correspondence took place between them after the battle of Chattanooga, and before that the government found fault with his military conduct on several occasions, and he had retorted by charges of neglect by the Government and want of support.

New Mexican Government.

It is rumored in diplomatic circles that the FOREY Government in Mexico has officially notified our Government of the organization of a new Government in that country and desire diplomatic intercourse with other nations. The question of recognition is now practically presented to the consideration of our State Department.

Occupation of Point Isabel.

The Southern steamer arrived yesterday, but brought little news of importance. The New South of the 17th inst., publishes a statement that the Federal forces occupied Point Isabel at the mouth of the Rio Grande, not far below Brownsville, which is opposite Matamoras.

Sale of Government Bonds.

It is stated that the Scotia brings intelligence of the sale abroad of twenty million of bonds. This sale will relieve the Treasury of the necessity of calling for another loan. H.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The army correspondent of the Herald, under date of the 20th, says the prevailing opinion, founded upon good authority is that the enemy had fallen back behind the Rappahannock. Our informant states that Lee's and Stuart's forces numbered over 70,000 men. With this force it sounds strange to have them falling back. It is said the want of supplies is the cause, but when they get within reach of transportation they will make a stand.

Among the camp rumors bearing semblance of truth are these: That Lee's headquarters are now at Culpepper. That Ewell's and Hill's corps are between Culpepper and Warrenton. That Lee is greatly disappointed at the failure of his plan to occupy Centreville and the Bull run field before General Meade could march his troops and send his supplies back to that point. That Lee intended not only to force Meade to fight him at Centreville, but proposed to take up his winter quarters there. That Lee's army is disorganized and disheartened, and that the Blue Ridge is full of rebels awaiting an opportunity to desert and come into our lines. This morning, quite early, there was artillery firing and a cavalry skirmish in the vicinity of the Sulphur Springs. Particulars not known.

Arrival of the Hibernia.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Oct. 21.—The steamship Hibernia, from Glasgow on the 13th, has arrived. The seizure of the rebel rams is confirmed.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 12—Cotton advanced 1 penny. Breadstuffs steady. Provisions quiet and steady.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—A special to the Times says: Our army are following the enemy up to-day. No rebels were discovered this side of the Rapidan, by a reconnoissance made to-day.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, Oct 20.—Gen. Kilpatrick's cavalry division, in front of our army, moved forward yesterday to near Warrenton, driving the rear guard of the enemy before them. Our whole army advanced to within supporting distance during the day. The railroad to Gainesville has been repaired.

A Committee of wealthy slave owners called upon the President to-day to protest against sending negro soldiers into St. Mary's County, Maryland, to enlist slaves from off plantations. The President replied that so far as sending them was concerned, that might be modified and white soldiers sent in their place; but so far as negroes are concerned, Government must have all slaves in Maryland and the Border States for military purposes.

From Morris Island---The Soldiers' Vote.

NEW YORK, October 22.—The following is the vote of the Ohio soldiers at Morris Island:—Twenty-Fifth Ohio, Brough, 199; Vallandigham, 7. Sixty-Second Ohio, Brough, 272; Vallandigham, 41. Sixty-seventh Ohio, Brough, 233; Vallandigham 29. Seventy-fifth Ohio, Brough, 130; Vallandigham, none. One hundred and Seventh Ohio, Brough, 25, Vallandigham, none. Hospital, Brough, 39; Vallandignam, 1. Total—Brough, 898; Vallandigham, 78.

The Times has the following letter from Morris Island, dated October 18th:—During the past three or four days there has been very little firing on either side. The enemy is evidently waiting for the iron-clads to come up, for which event he is reserving his ammunition.

Admiral Dahlgren a short time since expressed his determination, to an officer high in rank, to go up to Charleston on his next trial, or else assure himself that the iron-clads were unequal to the task. This will enhance the excitement of the conflict, and do much towards settling the dispute as to the amount of work that the iron-clads are capable of performing.

It is believed that James Island is occupied by 5,000 rebel troops. Sullivan's Island is supposed to be occupied by about the same number, and in the immediate vicinity of Charleston are quartered 10,000 more, making an aggregate force of about 20,000 men. Gen. Seymour arrived here from the North yesterday. He has not yet been assigned to a command.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Admiral Porter has taken advantage of the high water in the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers, to go with his squadron to points where he can render essential service to the army.

The message which the President sent to Gen. Meade, on last Saturday, deserves to be recorded as part of the history of the campaign now drawing to a close. The President says he must find and fight the enemy at once, and if he wins a victory he should have all glory, but if he was defeated, he himself would, as Commander-in-Chief, assume the responsibility.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Stock speculators to-day endeavored to create an impression here, and over the wires, that Secretary Chase will soon throw on the market a large amount of exchange on Europe, and so reduce the premium on gold. He will do no such thing, beyond paying the November interest on the public debt.

Five more regiments Invalid Corps have been organized, viz: 3d, 5th, 11th, 12th and 13th.

They pay $200 for a Sioux scalp in Minnesota.

Lord Clyde left a pretty little fortune—£70,000.

THE LEISURE HOUR.

CHILDHOOD.

Lightly bounding, pure and fair,
  Casting love-looks here and there;
Scattering dewdrops with his heels
  From the flowery-tinted fields;
Careless as his unshorn locks,
  Wild as moss-weed grown on rocks;
Heedless of the toils of strife,
  Or the battle-fields of life;

Plucking flowers by the way;
  Hunting birds from spray to spray;
Dancing in the laughing light
  Like the spirit of delight;
All his hopes the dear caresses
  Which his mother's lip possesses;
Thus the joys of childhood fly;
  Pity they should ever die.

A Touching Episode of the War.

Our readers will doubtless recollect having seen an announcement in the papers, some days since, of the death of a little son of Maj. Gen. W. T Sherman, a bright, beautiful boy of eight years, whose disease was contracted while in camp with his father, on the Big Black, twenty miles from Vicksburg. The accompanying letter, addressed to the 13th infantry, and by its officers ordered to be printed for distribution among the soldiers of the regiment, cannot but touch a chord in every heart. Stricken father, noble patriot, the hero of uncounted battles; let the nation pause in its admiration of his gallant deeds, to weep with the mourner over the young life that no "bugle note" will wake. The letter is dated Gayoso House, Memphis, Oct. 4, and addressed to Capt. C. C. Smith, commanding battalion, as following:

My Dear Friend: I cannot sleep to-night till I record an expression of the deep feelings of my heart to you, and to the officers and soldiers of the battalion, for their kind behavior to my poor child. I realize that you all feel for my family the attachment of kindred; and I assure you all of full reciprocity. Consistent with a sense of duty to my profession and office, I could not leave my post, and sent for my family to come to me in that climate, and in that sickly period of the year, and behold the result! The child that bore my name, and in whose future I reposed with more confidence than I did in my own plans of life now floats a mere corpse, seeking a grave in a distant land with a weeping mother, brother and sisters clustered about him. But, for myself I can ask no sympathy. On, on, I must go to meet a soldier's fate, or see my country rise superior to all factions, till its flag is adored and respected by ourselves and all the Powers of the earth.

But, my poor Willie was, or thought he was, a sergeant of the 13th. I have seen his eye brighten and his heart beat as he beheld the battalion under arms, and asked me if they were not real soldiers. Child as he was, he had the enthusiasm, the pure love of truth, honor and love of country, which should animate all soldiers. God only knows why he should die thus young. He is dead, but will not be forgotten till those who know him in life have followed him to that same mysterious end.

Please convey to the battalion my heartfelt thanks, and assure each and all that if, in after years, they call on me or mine, and mention that they were of the 13th Regulars, when poor Willie was a sergeant, they will have a key to the affections of my family that will open all it has—that we will share with them our last blanket, our last crust.

Your friend,
W. T. Sherman, Maj. Gen.

[From the Bunker Hill Aurora.]

Surgical Examination of a Conscript.

The other day chief engineer Dean, of the Fire Department, called at the office where I make shoes for a living, and handed me a big white envelope, notifying me that I was drafted, and must report myself for examination, at Lawrence, on the 18th of August.

Now, I consider it the duty of every citizen to give his life, if need be, for the defense of his country; so, on the merning of the eventful 18th, I put on a clean shirt and my Sunday clothes, and started for Lawrence, to see if I could get exempted.

Lawrence is situated on the Merrimac river, and its principal productions are mud, dust and factory girls. The city proper, at least that part what I saw, consisted of a long, narrow entry, up one flight of stairs, adorned overhead with a frescoing of gas meters, and carpeted with worn out tobacco quids, and furnished with one chair, two settees, and as many huge, square packing cases, marked "Q. M. D." Scattered around this palatial hall were some forty or fifty conscripts, looking very much as if they expected to be exempted by reason of old age, before the young man with a ferocious moustache should notify them of their turn. Most of them, however, were doomed to disappointment, for while they counted the hours of delay, the door would suddenly open, and the tall young man would single out a young man and march him through the open doorway to be seen no more.

By and by—that is, after several hours waiting—my turn came.

"John Smith?" shouted the door keeper.

"That's me," says I, and with a cheer from the crowd, I entered a large square room where two persons sat writing at a table, and a third, evidently a surgeon, was examining a man in the last stages of nudity.

One of the writers at the table, a young man with curly eyes and blue hair, nodded to me, and dipping his pen in the ink, commenced—

"John Smith, what's your name?"

"John Smith," says I.

"Where were you born?"

"Podunk, Maine."

"What did your great-grandmother die of?"

"Darned if I know," says I.

"Call it hapentap," says he; "and your grandfather, too?"

"I don't care what you call it," says I, for I was a little riled by his nonsensical questions.

"Did you ever have boils?" says he.

"Not a boil?"

"Or fits?"

"Nary fit."

"Or delirium tremens?"

"No sir-ee!"

"Or rickets?"

"I'll ricket you," says I, for I thought he meant something else.

"Did you ever have the measles?" says he.

Here I took off my coat.

"Or the itch?"

"Yes, sir," I—"that ere fist (and I shoved a very large brown one within three inches of his nose) has been itching, for the last ten minutes, to knock your pesky head off, you little, mean, low-lived, contemptible whelp, you."

"My dear sir," said the mild spoken, gentlemanly surgeon, laying his hand on my arm, "calm yourself, I pray. Don't let your angry passions rise, but take off your clothes, so I can see what you are made of."

So I suppressed my anger, and withdrawing to a corner, I hung my clothes up on the floor, and presented myself for examination, clad only with the covering nature had given, except about a square inch of court plaster on my right shin, where I had fallen over a chair, the night before, feeling for a match.

"Young man," said the surgeon, looking me straight in the eye, "you have got the myopia."

"Yes, sir," said I, "and a good one, too—a little Bininger, with a drop of Stoughton, makes an excellent eye-opener of a morning."

"And there seems to be an amaurotic tendency of the right eye, accompanied with ophthalmia."

"Show!" says I.

"And that white spot in the left eye betokens a cataract."

"I guess you mean in the ear," says I; "'cause I went in swimming this morning and got an all-fired big bubble in my left ear," and here I jumped down two or three times on my left foot, but to no purpose. As soon as I stopped he mounted a chair and commenced feeling the top of my head.

"Was your family ever troubled with epilepsy?" says he.

"Only the two boys," says I; "when they catch them my wife always goes at them with a fine tooth comb, the first thing."

Jumping off the chair he hit me a kick in the ribs that nearly knocked me over. and before I had time to remonstrate his arms were around my neck and his head pressed against my bosom the same way that Sophia Ann does when she wants me to buy her some new bonnets and things.

"Just what I thought," says he; "tuberculosis and hemoptpsis, combined with a defect in the scapular membrane and incipient phthysis!"

"Heavens?" say I, "what's that?"

"And cardiac disease."

"No!" said I.

"And pendardites!"

"Thunder!" said I

"Stop talking! Now count after me—one!"

"One!" said I, dead with fright.

"Asthma! Two."

"Two," I yelled.

"Exotis of the right febular! Three."

"Three!" I grasped.

"Coxalgia! Four."

"Murder!" said I, "Four."

"Confirmed duodenum of the right ventricle! Five."

"Oh! doctor, aint you most through? I feel faint!"

"Through? No! Not half through. Why my friend. Pandora's box was nothing to your chest. You have sphynixiana, and glorioso, and conchoilogia, and persiflage, and —"

Here my knees trembled so I leaned against the table for support.

"And permanent luxation of the anteriorlobe of the right phalanx."

My only answer was a deprecatory gesture.

And scrofulous diathesis and omniopodites."

I sank to the floor in utter drspair.

"Elutriation!" he yelled, for he saw I was going fast—"and maxillarium and—'

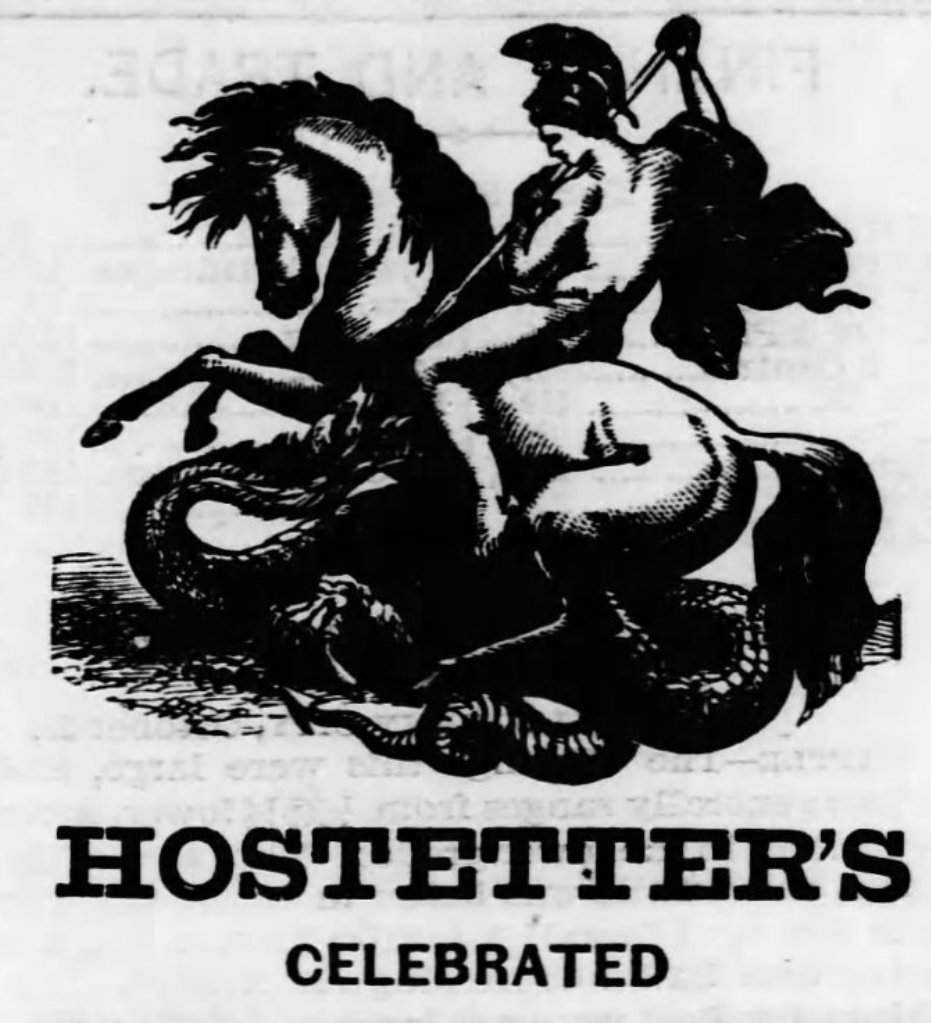
MEDICAL.



HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

HEAR THE WITNESSES.

WORTHLESS and pernicious articles are so often bolstered up in the advertising columns of the press by fabricated letters that the proprietors of

HOSTETTER'S BITTTERS

Rarely give quotations from their business correspondence, lest the GENUINE OPINIONS of those who use and appreciate a GENUINE ARTICLE, should be confounded by the unthinking with the FULSOME RIGMAROLE put into the mouths of MEN OF STRAW by unscrupulous empirics and charlatans, whose double object is to SELL both their trash and the PUBLIC.

Believing, however, that FACTS IMPORTANT TO THE HEALTH AND COMFORT OF THE PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED AT ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who vouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date, to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS THE INDIVIDUALS THEMSELVES, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

It may be thought, perhaps, that a preparation like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, which has long been a STANDARD TONIC throughout the WESTERN HEMISPHERE, and is rapidly becoming a staple of trade at the antipodes, speaks for itself in stronger tones than private eulogium can speak for it. This is true; but the phases of disease are almost innumerable, and every day new instances of the success of the Bitters, either as a PREVENTIVE or a CURE, come to the knowledge of the proprietors through the mails. Some of these are of immediate interest to thousands placed in precisely the same circumstances as the parties who have been PROTECTED and RELIEVED, and therefore it seems almost an act of duty to put them on record.

The immense increase in the sale of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, both at home and abroad, during the past year proves that the world, while it obeys the Scriptural injunction to "try all things," only "HOLDS FAST to that which is GOOD." Spurious preparations, like poisonous fungi, are continually springing up, but their character is soon discovered, and they are "flung like worthless weeds away." On the other hand, a great antidote that performs all it promises, and even more than its proprietors claimed for it on its introduction, is "not for a day, but for all time."

Every dose administered of a useless or deleterious nostrum helps to disabuse the public mind of the impressions it may have received from the flourish of trumpets with which the deceptious article was announced; while, on the contrary, every bottle sold of a purely valuable medicine secures the permanent custom of the purchaser, and makes him an ADVERTISER OF ITS MERITS among his friends. It is thus that HOSTETTER'S BITTERS have obtained their unparalled popularity. The Press, indeed, has made the GREAT STOMACHIC widely known, but it is the uniformly successful results of PERSONAL EXPERIMENT that have rendered it a HOUSEHOLD MEDICINE through out the length and breadth of the land, and the main reliance of the TRAVELER, the VOYAGER, the MINER and the PIONEER.

During the Summer months, a pure, wholesome tonic, in which are also incorporated the properties of an anti-bilious and mild aperient agent, is especially needed. Such a preparation is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the surest preventative and cure of dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, and nervous debility, ever placed within the reach of the community.

Against the depressing and sickening tendency of heat and miasma, it is a potent safeguard, and upon persons of feeble constitution and uncertain health, its renovating effects are most extraordinary.

READ REV W. B. LEE'S LETTER,
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 28, 1863.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen:—I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks and feel it due to you and the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a puff for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere nostrums of the day, being parent alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and the ultimate healing of the most common infirmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the Spring. I was bilious, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucous membraue, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, had no appetite and was much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your bitters a week my vigor returned, the sallow complexion was all gone, I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of mental application, which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me, When I used your bitters I felt a change every day. These are facts. All inference must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours respectfully,
W. B. LEE,
Pastor of Green avenue Presbyterian Church.

READ E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER.
PROSPECT COTTAGE,
GEORGETOWN, D. C., April 2, 1863.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen: It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia, and nervous headaches recurring at short intervals, and defying all known remedies in the Materia Medica, I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bottle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostetter's bitters, and it is but just to say that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a standard family cordial with us; and even as a stimulant we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases from fever down to toothache. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours,
E. D. E. N. SOUTHWORTH.

READ JOHN W. BRONOUGH'S LETTER.
NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Yards and Docks, Dec. 30, 1862.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa.: Gentlemen: About four years since, my attention was called to your celebrated Stomach Bitters, I being at the time a perfect martyr to dyspepsia in all of its terrific forms; indeed, I had not known for six years an uninterrupted night's sleep. I commenced the use of your Bitters, taking them according to your directions, except that the dose was reduced to one-half, and found myself much, very much benefitted by the first bottle; the second relieved me entirely; but I have ever since taken a dose in the morning, immediately on rising, finding it act as a tonic and appetizer of the most agreeable character. There is a peculiarity in the effect of your Bitters on me, which it may be well to state. If from any cause, I shall be suffering never so acutely with the headache, a dose of your Bitters relieves me in fifteen minutes. In conclusion, I say with all sincerity and truth, I would not be returned to the state of health in which your Bitters found me, and from which they have unquestionably relieved me, for all the money in the world.

I am, with great respect, your obd't servant,
JOHN W. BRONOUGH, Chief Clerk.

READ SAMUEL BYER'S LETTER.
NEW CONVALESCENT CAMP,
Near Alexander, Va., May 24, 1863.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Dear Sirs: Will you do me the favor to forward, by express, one-half dozen Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of the same, as I am unable to procure your medicine here; and if I had a quantity, it could be sold readily, as it is known to be the best preparation in use for diseases having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it, should he be ever so robust and healthy; for it is not only a Restorative, but a Preventative, for almost all diseases a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicted with chronic indigestion, and no medicine has ever afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters ordered. Yours respectfully,
SAMUEL BYERS, Hospt.

RENSSELAERVILLE, July 7, 1864.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith—Gentlemen:—Please send me some of your Bitters at your earliest convenience, as I have at present an extensive sale for them. I have no medicine of which I sell as much as your Bitters. I have kept them for two years last past. They have now begun to sell. They have performed some remarkable cures in Dyspepsia which have been of long standing, and from which they have acquired a reputation won by no other medicine in our market. I can send you certificates surpassing anything you ever published, if of any value to you, being anxious such a medicine should be introduced in every place. If persons were as well acquainted with it as I am, they would not be without it. Respectfully yours,
W. P. SWEET, Druggist,
Rensselaerville, Albany Co., N. Y.

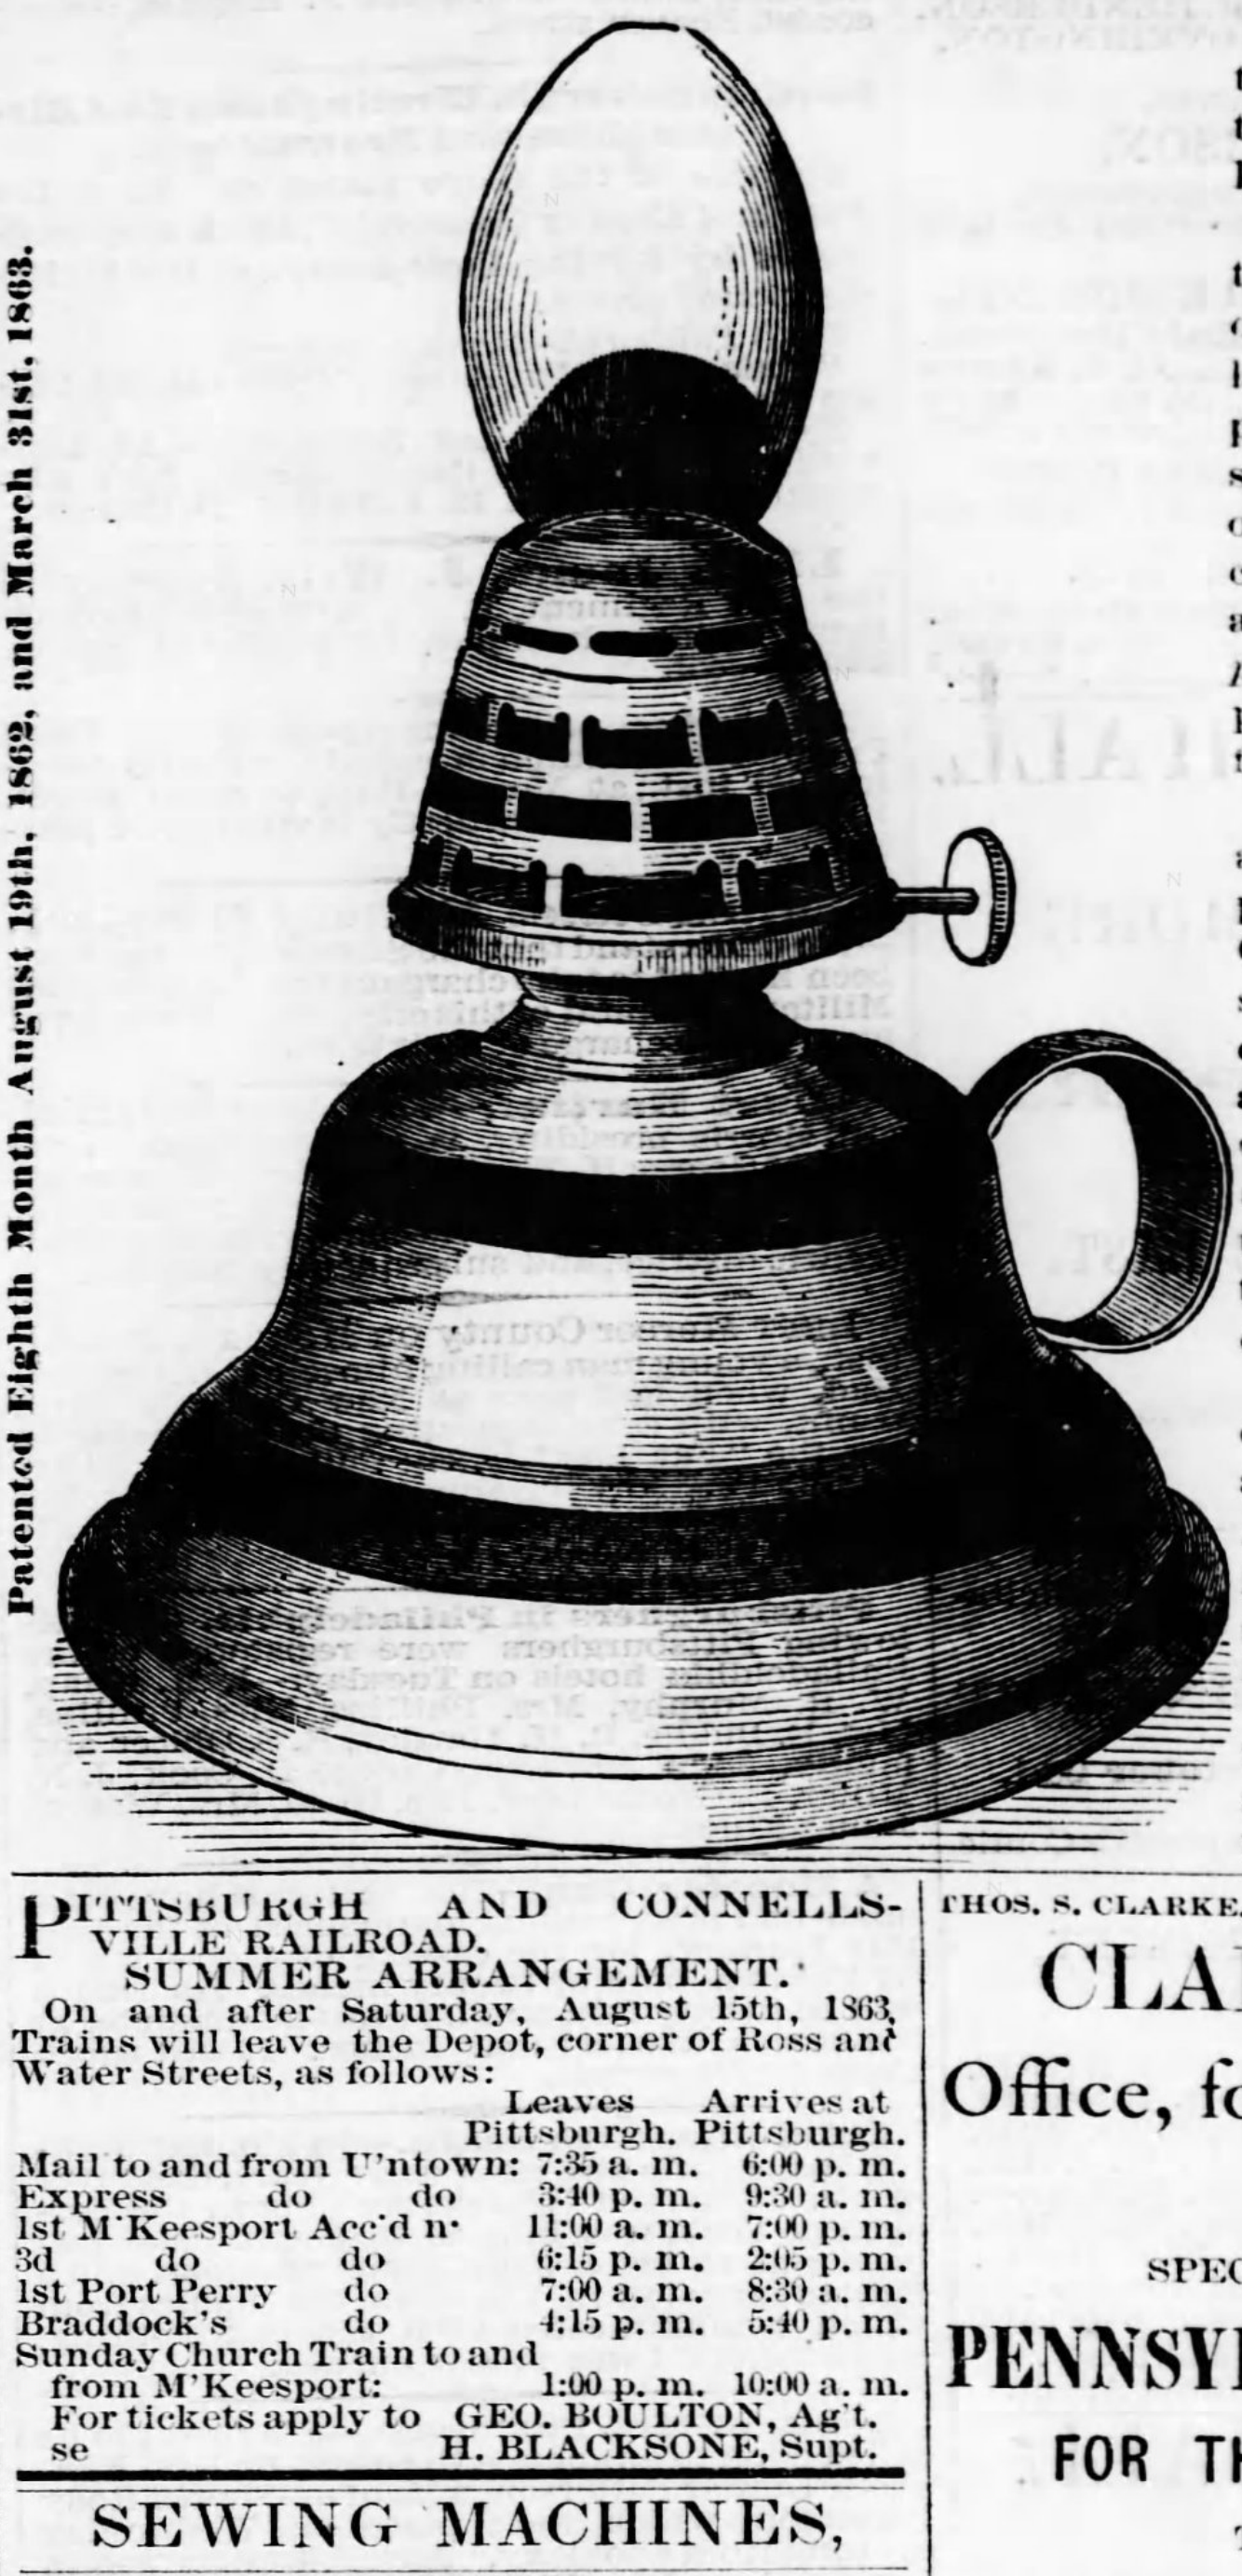
MANUFACTURERS' AGENTS FOR
TRITTIN'S IMPROVED PORTABLE NO CHIMNEY BURNERS.



Patented Eighth Month August 19th, 1862, and March 31st, 1863.

THIS Lamp is offered the public in great confiden that it is the best one of kind now in the market.

It has been selected by the largest manufacturers of New York and New England, for manufacture, in preference to all others shown them, for its superiority of light,—facility of carrying about, and especially for its non-conducting principle, which renders it perfectly safe against the effects of heating.

It is simple in construction and is afforded at very low prices. For a Kitchen and Chamber Lamp, for Workshops' and Vessels' use, it is economical and invaluable, and is rapidly superseding other lamps. The cheapness and almost universal use of Coal Oil, commends this lamp to all housekeepers.

Particular attention is called to its admirable adaptation to LANTERNS. A simple trial will show its great superiority in this respect over all other Burners.

Lamp dealers throughout the country will be able to supply the public with this useful Burner. oc3
